REMEMBRANCE POEM

“In Flanders Fields” by Lieutenant Colonel John McCrae, MD (1872-1918) Canadian Army

In Flanders fields the poppies blow Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly Scarce heard amid the guns below.

May the Peace of God come to the people of the world who are turbulent and tired of being turbulent

May the Peace of God come to the people of the world who are silenced and tired of being silenced

May the Peace of God come to the people of the world who are divided and tired of being divided

May the Peace of God come to the people of the world who are anxious and tired of being anxious

May the Peace of God come to the people of the world who are privileged and tired of being privileged

May the God of all people give us grace and peace this day and every day
